Data Storage and Transfer

1. Data may be transferred to flash drives and other USB drives for archival or transfer to another platform.
2. Secure FTP may be used to transfer directly from the spectrometer with the manager’s permission.
3. The vertical systems located in the AMRIS wing are mounted to a central data station where you may have access to TopSpin software for processing and plotting.